IPS APPOINTS MARK A. BUTLER TO PRESIDENT, MANAGING DIRECTOR OF THE AMERICAS UNIT

- Significant Growth and Crossing the 1,000 Employee Milestone Drives IPS to Establish a Scalable Structure to Meet Current and Future Growth Targets -

Blue Bell, PA; June 5, 2017 – IPS-Integrated Project Services, LLC (IPS) has achieved significant growth over the years including record-setting revenue in 2016 and surpassing the 1,000 employee milestone in Q2 2017. The continuous evolution and success of the organization merit investments and strategic positioning to drive sustainable long-term growth. Therefore, the IPS Global Business Units, including the Americas Unit, were established to attain IPS’ growth goals and offer a consistent delivery platform that ensures a high level of quality and service expected by IPS clients.

In light of its growth, IPS announces the appointment of Mr. Mark A. Butler to President, Managing Director of the Americas Unit. Mr. Butler is a seasoned industry professional with over thirty (30) years of experience. His expertise in design, construction, and operations of facilities, combined with his leadership capability and his strong client relationships enable him to cultivate results-oriented strategies that directly influence IPS’ business. Mr. Butler is a key member of the IPS leadership team with twenty (20) years of experience with the company. He started and managed IPS’ New Jersey office, and most recently was the General Manager of the Engineering Division where he was responsible for the strategic direction, market expansion, client development, and account management.

As Managing Director of the Americas Business Unit, Mr. Butler will lead IPS’ large operational footprint in the US, Canada, and South America, and pursue additional geographic and strategic areas within the Americas that strengthen IPS’ leading position for sustainable long-term growth. Mr. Butler will be responsible for the performance of all divisions and products in the regions, as well as to reinforce a cohesive engineering, procurement, construction management, and validation (EPCMV) project delivery platform.

“I’ve had the pleasure of working alongside Mark over the last 20 years at IPS, and I am pleased to see him take over this important role as the Managing Director of the Americas Business Unit,” said Dave Goswami, P.E., IPS Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. “Mark is highly regarded in the industry and well-respected by his peers and staff. This role will allow Mark to take the Americas region to an even loftier height.”
