IPS HOST ALEX’S LEMONADE STAND TO RAISE FUNDS FOR CHILDHOOD CANCER

In an effort to join the battle against childhood cancer, IPS-Integrated Project Services’ (IPS) and its affiliate company PharmaLogics Recruiting, both located in Massachusetts, will host an Alex’s Lemonade Stand on Tuesday, April 24, 2012. Members of IPS were inspired to get involved with Alex’s Lemonade Stand Foundation after seeing a news story on Alexandra “Alex” Scott.

In addition to hosting a lemonade stand at IPS and PharmaLogics Recruiting in Massachusetts, IPS will also be hosting a lemonade stand at all of its U.S. offices to kick-off its series of events to fight childhood cancer. Alexandra Scott, founder of Alex’s Lemonade Stand Foundation, is from the Philadelphia region where IPS is headquartered.

Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation (ALSF) emerged from the front yard lemonade stand of cancer patient Alexandra “Alex” Scott (1996-2004). In 2000, 4-year-old Alex announced that she wanted to hold a lemonade stand to raise money to help find a cure for all children with cancer. Since Alex held that first stand, the Foundation bearing her name has evolved into a national fundraising movement, complete with thousands of supporters across the country carrying on her legacy of hope. To date, Alex’s Lemonade Stand Foundation, a registered 501(c)3 charity, has raised more than $50 million toward fulfilling Alex’s dream of finding a cure, funding over 200 research projects nationally.
